The Chappaqua Library proudly presents author Cecile Richards

Make Trouble: Standing Up, Speaking Out and Finding the Courage to Lead
Tuesday, May 22, 2018 @ 7PM
Chappaqua Library

Ms. Richards is the president of Planned Parenthood and daughter of the late Texas Governor Ann Richards. Make Trouble tells her story of learning to lead and make change. Richards, a featured speaker at the Women's March in Washington, based her book on a lifetime of fighting for women's rights and social justice.

In order to attend the event you MUST have two items:

1. A free Eventbrite ticket from the Chappaqua Library AND
2. A copy (or multiple copies) of the book *Make Trouble. You may purchase the book before you arrive at the library from Scattered Books and/or at the event itself

Please reserve your book(s) in advance: 914-529-8013 or info@scatteredbooks.com

You may have multiple Make Trouble books signed but not be personalized

Can't make the event? You may order autographed books to be shipped or picked up after 5/22 from Scattered Books: info@scatteredbooks.com to order.
